Maharashtra SSC Board Exam 2027 – Pattern at a Glance

Exam dates (2027)	SSC written papers are expected from mid-February to 11 March 2027, with practical / oral / internal assessment from late January; the board has called these dates tentative and will issue a subject-wise timetable separately.
Marks	6 subjects × 100 marks = 600 total. Each subject is 80 marks theory + 20 marks internal / practical / oral assessment.
Question types	Objective (MCQ / one-mark), very short, short and long answer questions, as per the standard MSBSHSE paper pattern.
Mathematics & Science	Each has two papers – Maths: Algebra (40) + Geometry (40); Science: Part I (40) + Part II (40) – each paper carrying its own internal / practical marks.
Social Science	One paper: History 40 + Political Science + Geography, combined with 20 internal marks.
Passing marks	A minimum of about 35% in each subject is generally required (percentage as commonly published; confirm the exact figure with the board's current circular).
